Mr. C. Sidney Neuhoff, Attorney
408 Pine Street
St. Louis, Missouri

Dear Mr. Neuhoff:

We are returning herewith the coins belonging to the Estate of George Pieksen which you sent for appraisal. Copies of the appraisal are enclosed herewith.

The aggregate fair market value, in our opinion, is $477.61.

If you wish to compensate or donate to this organization the money will be used for further advancement in numismatic knowledge.

Very truly yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN NUMISMATIC

Dear Mr. Neuhoff:

Of the silver dollars you mentioned, I could use an uncirculated specimen of 1879S, 1882S, 18840, 1887P, which you indicated you had.

Thank you for thinking of me.

Sincerely,

From the desk of

Dear Sid:

I want to thank you for the opportunity of acquiring some of your Commemoratives.

I have made a total, using your costs as marked on the envelopes, and where you had no costs written, I determined the cost from the Beebee advertisements.

The total of your cost is $180.10, for which my check is enclosed.

Get your health back because, without that,you cannot enjoy coins.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Neuhoff:

I am pleased to enclose herewith a check for $593.45 from Allen J. Rosenberg, Inc., to whom we sold $415.00 face value Silver Certificates belonging to your husband's estate, at an average of $1.43 per dollar.

My inventory shows 402 $1 Silver Certificates and 1 $5 for a face value of $407.00. There were 2 $5 Certificates in the group which you gave me. Apparently a couple of the notes must have stuck together when you counted some and I counted some.

I enclose my check for $37.18 for $26 face amount of Silver Certificates which you turned over to me as a separate item.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr Newman:-

My apologies for being so long in acknowledging the receipt of the checks for the Silver Certificates you so kindly sold for me in New York.

I sincerely appreciate all of the time you spent in appraising Sidney's Coin Collection and since you said you would not make a charge for your services I am enclosing a check for you can make some good use of it in Sidney's Memory.

You have been so kind — I hope you will be willing to give me advice as I am faced with problems of disposing of the collection.

My best wishes to you for the New Year

Most sincerely
